Travel with Local, Travel with Korkoo
Fuloi Fuloi

About the plan:

We meet for a village breakfast at a midpoint. Then, follow your host for about an hour in your vehicle to a parking point. Boot up and trek for about 40 minutes through the forest, including crossing a stream. Chill here for a couple of hours. In-between grab some snacks. Later, drive to a farmer's hut, down a couple of freshly made Feni cocktails and dig into a traditionally cooked Goan Gaud Saraswat lunch over stories of the village. Some of the ingredients for the lunch are picked from the surrounding hills.

The local plan: What's included?
